CLOSELY FOUGHT FINISHES.

Two selling and four allowance events provided the card for yesterday at Washington Park. The track was in fine order and the racing exceedingly interesting. Two races were decided by margins of a head, two by necks, one by a half length and one by a length and a half. Favorites finished first in three events. A 10 to 1 and a 20 to 1 chance also figured in the list of winners.

Fourteen two-year-olds went to the post in the opening race, five furlongs and a half. English Lad ruled favorite throughout the betting, having a slight call over Flo Bob in the closing quotations. Mizzen Mast was next in the esteem of patrons of the ring. The favorite won after a remarkable race. Witchcraft, a 25 to 1 chance, being second and Forehand, 12 to 1, third. Witchcraft was next to the outside and English Lad on the extreme outside at the gate. Both got away poorly, Witchcraft next to last, and each had to go a long route and exhibit strength as well as speed. Forehand, which was number one, was quickly in full stride and enjoying an open lead. Flo Bob and Marshal Ney closed with him on the turn and were clinging to him as he faced down the homestretch. Straightening out Witchcraft came out of the bunch with a rush and became a contender. After Marshal Ney and Flo Bob had been compelled to yield and the actual contestants appeared to be Witchcraft and Forehand, the favorite, and Soldier of Fortune dashed out of the ruck and sped rapidly toward the front. At the furlong post English Lad's chance looked hopeless. Nevertheless he finished so speedily and determinedly that in the closing strides he joined issue with Witchcraft and Forehand, running nose and nose and beat them a neck on the post. Soldier of Fortune was a good fourth. It was a capital introductory of the day's sport.

The second race was one mile, for three-year-olds. It brought out Postmaster Wright, Gilfain, Bonnie Burr, Big Ben and High Chancellor, the latter having an allowance of five pounds and the others carrying full weights. Gilfain and High Chancellor were equal choices in the early ring transactions. Steady backing established Gilfain a strong favorite, at post time. Big Ben obtained considerable support for second place and was moderately backed to win. Some shrewd speculators invested freely on Postmaster Wright whenever 10 to 1 was offered. Big Ben set the pace and led by from a length to two lengths for three-quarters of a mile. Postmaster Wright, Gilfain and Bonnie Burr ran in close company for the first half mile, during which High Chancellor was a bad last. Beginning at the upper turn Postmaster Wright went up to Big Ben only to find that the leader could shake him off. When Doc Streett's gelding entered the last quarter he appeared to be going easily while his followers were strung out and under pressure. A hundred yards into the homestretch he began to tire. Then D. Hall got rattled and let go of his horse's head and in a few strides more Postmaster Wright was in front. Gilfain and Bonnie Burr were beaten before heading for home. High Chancellor ran fast through the last five hundred yards and at the end was close to the winner. It was an open question whether High Chancellor was unable to keep up the first part of the journey or Lester Reiff lay away too far. The time, 1:41½, does not reflect a performance of much merit.

Gregor K. was a prime favorite for the third race at seven furlongs and a half. He was heavily backed at 6 to 5 and even money. Bragg was a second choice that attracted comparatively little patronage except for the place. Money and commissions were distributed on each of the other three starters, Sidney C. Love, Hoodwink and Trinity Bell. The little favorite rewarded his backers, but not as easily as was expected. He was extended to the limit of his speed and strength and the finish did not enthrall his partisans. They experienced depressive emotions as they witnessed Sidney C. Love making a resolute and threatening effort and were relieved when the numbers were posted. Then they debated whether the victory was secured by a head, a nose or a nostril. Gregor K. rushed to the front at the start, and just beyond the half mile ground led by nearly three lengths. He had an advantage of two lengths when squared for the finish and Henry was sitting still in the saddle. A little over three-sixteenths from the end Sidney C. Love and Hoodwink joined a hot pursuit of him. The filly could not quite catch him, but the colt did and engaged him in a desperate and thrilling finish. Bragg performed miserably in the final struggle. Trinity Bell came into the stretch under a drive.

Longflo was the long shot of the afternoon. He finished a winner by a head in the fourth race, a mile and a sixteenth, which gathered a field of nine selling platers. Sarah Maxim was almost conceded to be the winner and was plunged upon at 8 to 5 and 7 to 5. Fading Light and Loone were second and third choices at from 4 to 6 and liberal odds were laid against the others. Alene Abbott cut out the work. She held a distinct lead until in the homestretch, where Longflo and Loone closed with her. Fading Light became a contender in the last eighth and fought out the finish with the winner. Longflo was never worse than second. Pyrrho was a close third.

Another close contest was witnessed in the fifth race. From start to finish Golden Rule, the odds-on favorite, and Irene Lindsey were the contenders. Swinging into the stretch Henry on the favorite, carried L. Wilson, on Irene Lindsey, wide, gained a length by so doing and permitted Jane Holly, which made a close turn, to become an apparently dangerous third. In the end Irene Lindsey gave the winner a sharp struggle. As usual, Golden Rule was a crazy animal at the post.

John A. Drake won his first race at the meeting, when, in the closing selling event of a mile and a sixteenth Vincennes beat Thane half a length. Thane was a short-priced favorite. As good as 8 to 1 was laid against the winner, on which the stable had only a small commission. Joe Yeager, however, backed him all over the ring. Ed Corrigan's Galba was the pacemaker. At the head of the stretch Thane and Vincennes emerged from the bunch, passed the leader and the finish was a contest between them.

LOCAL TURF GOSSIP.

The Washington Park judges are determined to check the reckless riding and yesterday had before them jockey S. Bonner, who rode Alene Abbott in the fourth race. The jockey seemingly took his mount across the field soon after the start, impeding Fading Light and Sarah Maxim, the latter narrowly escaping a fall. The judges asked Bonner after the race, the reason for his cutting across the field, and the rider's explanation was that his mount was uncontrollable.

Winner—B. f. by Fonso—Intermission (trained by H. Harris). Went to post at 2:30. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second the same. Interval beat the barrier and forced the pace throughout, standing a long stretch drive gamely. Courtmaid worked a rough journey gamely, closing up fast at the end. Coruscate, away very badly, closed a tremendous gap while running on the extreme outside and was much the best. Gloriosa received a lucky start and was a prominent contender up to the last fifty yards, where she quit after being crowded. Ella Snyder was hemmed in on all sides and buffeted about like a shuttlecock, closing up with a rush when with clear sailing in the last quarter and was at least second best. Sabot, a good looker, made a promising debut and may be a good one. Our Nugget quit badly at the end. Blue Banner was nearly put over the fence when a furlong out. Scratched—36338 Dinksie, 101; 39595 Sparkle Esher, 101; 38555 Mezzo, 101; 35004 Helen C. S., 96. Overweights—Our Nugget, 2 pounds; Blue Banner, 3; Mary Street, 1; Effie Sheppard, 1. Winner—Ch. f. by Pirate of Penzance—December (trained by H. B. Durham). Went to post at 3:05. At post 1 minute. Start straggling. Won easily; second driving. Dekaber, next to the rail, broke in her stride and held away throughout, coming away fast from Royal Pirate's strong challenge in the stretch. The latter, also lucky at the start and having clear sailing, was always a prominent contender and ran in improved form on his own courage. Cardinal Wolsey, nearly left, closed a big gap and, on the far turn, where the pace was fastest, was moving through his horses as if they were anchored and was possibly best. Spring Silk is a rater and difficult to ride and no small boy can do him justice. He got away well and ran a steady and fine race and was going very fast at the finish. Polite made up fifteen lengths on the leaders after getting off very badly. Silver Heels showed a lot of speed for nearly seven furlongs. Sentinel was all but left. Pass Book is reported to have worked well and this half-brother to Wax Taper may be expected to do better.

Scratched—36437 Gates, 93. Corrected Weights—Pass Book, 93. Overweights—Royal Pirate, 2 pounds; Cardinal Wolsey, 4; Sentinel, 3; Pass Book, 3. Dekaber, show, 2 to 5. Royal Pirate, show, 4 to 1. Cardinal Wolsey, show, evens. Sentinel, show, evens.

Winner—Ch. c. by Mirthful—Bassinette (trained by J. Healy). Went to post at 3:30. At post 3 minutes. Start straggling. Won driving; second the same. Baseful forced the pace throughout and stalled off with rare gameness several strong challenges in the last furlong. Pentaur finished with a tremendous rush and ran like a coming crackerjack. Jocund broke slowly on the outside and was compelled to run wide, losing much ground, but when straightened for home finished resolutely. Cascine, in the middle of the field and crowded on the turn, would have been third in another stride. Prince Salm Salm ran a remarkable race for his first essay. Montana King is a giant and a slow beginner. He trailed far in the rear and was making up ground very fast at the able at the time and she of her own accord cut across the field. The explanation was not entirely satisfactory to the officials, and after the races they called before them owner Bradley for the purpose of ascertaining if Alene Abbott is a heavy headed horse. If the owner states that she is not, then it is almost a certainty that Bonner will be suspended or heavily fined for reckless riding. It was reported yesterday that Copperfield was ailing and would not start again for some time.

A two-year-old colt by Blazes, the property of Dan O'Brien, died of lung fever yesterday at Washington Park.

C. E. Mahone was disgusted with Sarah Maxim's performance in the fourth race, and when she was brought back to the paddock he seized the mare's bridle and turning to a group of horsemen remarked: "How much am I bid for her?" "$300," replied J. U. Strode. "You have bought a horse," answered Mahone. The two owners then adjourned to the secretary's office to write out a bill of sale and while there J. Phillips told Strode he would give him $50 profit. "No," replied Strode, "but you can have her for $500." Phillips hesitated for a while, then said: "I'll give you $450 for her." "All right," then turning to Mahone Strode said: "just make out the bill of sale to Phillips." Later C. E. Durnell offered $500 for her, but could not induce Phillips to sell.

C. R. Ellison stated yesterday that J. P. Mayberry was rapidly recovering from his attack of influenza and that nothing serious is expected to develop as a result of the high fever which the colt had. His temperature at one time registered 106. Judge Himes is not showing any more signs of soreness, but will hardly again be started until the next Hawthorne meeting.

For the first time in a long time the blackboard in the rear of the judges' stand at Washington Park yesterday contained no names of withdrawals from the carded races.

Jockey Dominick received a telegram from W. Cole of St. Louis, requesting him to come to the Mound City to ride Imboden in the Native Nursery Stakes, which is carded for decision at the Fair Grounds today. He wired back that as he was engaged to ride McChesney today in the Oakwood Handicap he could not go.

Hopedale was off well in motion, was taken the shortest way around and had things all his own way in the last half. Stephen Lillard was well handled, had no mishaps and was ridden all the way. Penela closed up very fast in the stretch after being outrun in the first part of the race. Lee Ridley showed his usual early speed and then tired.

Maud Johnson rated along in behind Jim Ferrin until well into the homestretch, caught the latter tiring in the final furlong and was going away at the end. Discus finished fast, caught Zonne tiring in the final eighth and won going away. The latter was used too much in the first part of the race and weakened when the pinch came. Insolence about ran her race and Dean took the short route and saved ground all the way. Wallabout was raced into exhaustion in chasing Zonne. J. H. Sloan seems to have lost all his old-time speed.

Walsh cut across his field with Shrine at the start, causing the others to pull up, but Shrine had speed to spare, quickly opened up a winning gap and was only cantering at the end. Birch Broom easily shook off On the Quiet in the first half and got second place without trouble. Flora Willoughby did her best. On the Quiet tired badly and also acted very badly at the post. Went to post at 4:00. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Andy Williams shows steady and pronounced improvement. He got away in his stride, but was taken back while rounding the first turn, then gradually moving up and under a long and terrific whipping finish, just got home by a head. Duke of Kendal dropped in behind the leader and ran under a pull to the stretch, where he rushed into the lead, only to be downed after a long struggle by the winner. The Rival made play early and appeared to have a lot of speed in reserve even at the end of six furlongs, but when the real racing began he was passed in a twinkling, tiring palpably in the last quarter and he may not be as yet quite keyed up. Florham Queen led for five furlongs on sufferance and fell out of it as if shot when the others moved up.

The Rival made play early and appeared to have a lot of speed in reserve even at the end of six furlongs, but when the real racing began he was passed in a twinkling, tiring palpably in the last quarter and he may not be as yet quite keyed up. Florham Queen led for five furlongs on sufferance and fell out of it as if shot when the others moved up.
 Scratched—(39913) Daisy Green, 95; 39961 Sentinel, 85.
 Overweights—Duke of Kendal, 1 pound; Highlander, 2.
 Andy Williams, show, 1 to 3. Duke of Kendal, show, 1 to 3. The Rival, show, 4 to 5. Highlander, show, 1 to 3.

39964 FIFTH RACE—1 Mile. $1,200 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Handicap.

stretch and quickly caught and passed Stamping Ground and was much the best. The latter made the running and, easing up on the stretch turn, the field closed up on her but when straightened for home she again went away like a flash and seemed like the winner when a furlong out and ran a game and fast race. Meltonian came out of the race very lame after a very bad showing. He was at no time dangerous and appeared to have his hands full early in the game to keep up. Odom brought him up at the end, where he outstayed his stable companion. Brigand ran very much as if short and may be expected to greatly improve in his next effort. Illyria sustained his speed unexpectedly well and is evidently being conditioned for races over a considerable distance.

Scratched—39839 The Carmelite, 102.

Bon Mot, show, 3 to 5. Stamping Ground, show, 4 to 5. Entry, show, out. Meltonian, singly, place, 3 to 5; show, out. Brigand, singly, place, 3 to 5; show, out.

Time, 12², 24², 48², 1:14², 1:40².
 Winner—E. c, by Fitz James—Queen's Taste (trained by H. E. Rowell).
 Went to post at 4:30. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Bon Mot, on his good behavior today, broke in front, but Gannon was content to wait in behind the pacemaker and next to the rail, was repeatedly shut off and hopelessly pocketed at a critical moment on the stretch turn. He finally bumped his way through in the stretch and quickly caught and passed Stamping Ground and was much the best. 39965 SIXTH RACE—5 1-2 Furlongs on Turf. $900 added. 2-year-olds. Selling.

Valour got away well and held a prominent position and when making a fast move on the far turn was jostled back and it was only after the field was well on its way home that he got through and drew clear in the last sixteenth, finishing fast and gamely. Pristina ran a remarkable race, closed a tremendous gap from a bad start and finished like a cyclone. Nameoki was probably the best, got away badly and had to work a very rough journey before he got into contention and then he was carried out on the turn, but was putting up a game fight at the end. Sailor Knot gave a glimpse of his true form and, after following the fast pace closely, finished out the journey well. Sweet Tone failed to start and had no mishaps. Excentral finished fast. Bath Beach quit after showing the way to the stretch under all kinds of restraint.

Scratched—(39915) Luminosity, 111; 39940 Steelmaker, 105; 39794 Donnelly, 104; (39916) Thistle Heather, 103; 39863 Mohave, 102; 39916 Sir Wait, 99; 39915 Listaway, 99.

Corrected weights—Sailor Knot, 102; Tommy Rot, 110.

 Winner—B. f, by Handball—Mallow (trained by J. F. Daniels).
 Went to post at 2:31. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Ora McKinney displayed sudden and remarkable improvement, went through her field, easily overtook the leaders and won with plenty left. Allegrette went well to the last eighth, then tired. She was given a weak finish. Bush Smith ran his race. Mengis closed up stoutly and seems to be improving. Yenom showed speed, but tired. Tom Olney ran in much improved form.
 Scratched—39012 Two S., 105.
 Overweights—Yenom, 3 pounds.

Fourleaf C. was much the best, was in the heavy going all the way, saved ground turning for home and then won as she pleased. Lady Strathmore ran to her form. Ed Ball tired in the run home. Santa Ventura found it unpleasant racing with Bridge. She did not relish the track's condition either. Bridge, too, wants a fast track.
